Small Spaces by Katherine Arden is a teen horror book about 3 children, Brian, Coco, and Ollie, and it is the first book in the series.

They are on a school field trip to an old farm with a dark past, but suddenly when leaving the farm, the bus gets surrounded in a creepy fog and breaks down. The teacher tells everyone to stay on the bus, but Ollie leaves and so do Brian and Coco. What waits for them in the fog covered woods, and what will happen to the others?

I originally wanted to read this book because I was looking on the online library for good books and I saw it in my recommendations and the cover looked cool too, so I clicked on it and loved it from the start.

I recommend this book to anyone who wants a scary and entertaining book, and loves a good group of characters. I give this book a 10/10.
