The Sun Dog by Stephen King

I originally became interested in this book when I was looking for a Stephen King book that had something to do with some sort of evil creature.

In this book, 15-year-old Kevin Delevan gets a Polaroid Sun 660 camera for his birthday, but there’s something wrong with it. No matter what it takes a picture of, the photo that comes out always shows a vicious dog, getting closer with each picture taken.

This book reminds me of some of the Fear Street books because of the pacing of the story towards the end. People who enjoy being scared will like this book.

I liked this book and would highly recommend it to anyone who enjoys a suspenseful read because kept me interested and kept me on the edge of my seat. I like the design of the cover because it does a good job of showing what the pictures of the sun dog look like.
